

ATLANTIC ITALIES

ECONOMIC, CULTURAL AND POLITICAL ENTANGLEMENTS (LATE 15TH - EARLY 19TH CENTURIES)

Two-Session Panel at the 5th European Congress on World and Global History
Budapest, 31 August – 3 September 2017

Convenors

Silvia Marzagalli (Université Côte Azur / Institut Universitaire de France)
Roberto Zaugg (Université de Lausanne)

Chair Silvia Marzagalli

Carlo Taviani & Steven Teasdale
Genoese Merchant Networks
from the Black Sea to West Africa and the Americas (15th-16th Centuries)

Cecilia Tarruell
Between the Mediterranean and the Atlantic.
The Network of the Gasparo Corso Brothers in the Late 16th Century

Alida Clemente
Atlantic Naples.
Merchant Networks and New Consumptions in the Eighteenth Century

Luca Codignola-Bo
Antonio Filicchi, Vito Viti, and Other Atlantic Entrepreneurs.
From the Grand Duchy of Tuscany to the United States, 1815-1847

Roberto Zaugg
From the Mediterranean Sea to the Royal Court of Benin.
Trade Networks and Cultural Meanings of Red Coral (15th-18th Centuries)

Alejandro García Montón
Mediterranean Institutions and the Transatlantic Slave Trade.
Creation, Diffusion, and Re-Appropriation (17th and 18th Centuries)

Anne Ruderman
Venetian Beads for the Atlantic Slave Trade

Giulia Bonazza & Alessandro Tuccillo
Italian States and Atlantic Slave Trade.
Imperial Diplomacy and Debates on Slavery during the First Half of the 19th Century

